2010 – 100 Years of Boy Scouting in the United States!

April 2010

Editor's Thoughts...

By Pam Dixon

Good news to anyone who thought they missed these deadlines!

The Eagle Recognition Dinner is still accepting applications for scouts that earned their Eagle Award in 2009 and for adults that would like to sponsor a scout. The deadline for both is April 9th. Sponsor form is in this newsletter on Page 6.

The Belcher Award Scholarship has extended the deadline to apply to April 30th. What a great scholarship this is. Those that can apply are graduating high school seniors who are Eagle Scouts and will be attend a university or college this year.

A Note from the District Chair

By Frank Keberman

Dear Friends,

I had a chance to observe the Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills Course held at the AGSEM on the 19th and 20th of March. Thirty-one adult volunteers attended. They came from all over San Diego-Imperial Council. One fellow even came down from Orange County Council. It was a pleasure to watch as they enthusiastically participated in this fine program. Marcus Sneed and his staff did a wonderful job setting up and running the course. I wish everyone could have seen the closing campfire. I know those leaders are now well prepared to assume their duties as leaders of Troops. Thank you Santa Margarita Training Team for a job very well done!

As spring and summer approach, I hope all unit leaders are planning their camping program. Mataguay Scout Ranch and the Youth Aquatic Center dates are filling up quickly, so get those reservations in as soon as possible. The Cub Day Camps staffs are also getting prepared for another year. Don't let your Cubs miss out on Day Camp. Interested in going on a high adventure trek? Check with the Council. There may still be openings, or perhaps your unit is planning its' own. Great! Don't let this 100th anniversary summer pass without giving your Scouts a truly memorable outdoor experience.

A gentle reminder to all who plan on attending the District Recognition Dinner on 6 May. Please get your reservations in early. Pam Dixon and her staff have outdone themselves this year. The price is only $10.00

The District Director's Minute

By Vic Enchelmayer

Recently I attended a conference for the Rotary district. The keynote speaker, George Chaffey spoke on the topic of LEADERSHIP. He shared his top ten principals of leadership:

- 10 - Get your binoculars! Have a vision and goals and go after them.
- 9 - Beg, borrow, steal! All good ideas come from somewhere. Find out what's working for someone else and go do it! (Roundtables and training provide this opportunity in Scouting. Also, attending the Scout Fair and Camporee provide great ideas to beg, borrow and steal.)
- 8 - Get your priorities straight.
- 7 - Communicate! Communicate! Communicate!
- 6 - Plan that sucker! Measure twice cut once, measure once, cut twice. PPPPPP. The six P's (ask me when you see me and I will explain)
- 5 - Be yourself!
- 4 - Lead by Example. Be the first to lead the way!
- 3 - Listen up!
- 2 - I know more than I think I know, but also I don't know as much as I think I know.
- 1 - Have FUN!

Leadership is measured in evoking RESPONSE. It is getting people to respond, not because you want them to; it is getting them to respond because they want to!

This is April! That means Scout Fair and Camporee! Be sure these are on your schedule and Lead the Way, by attending and bringing others. Also, be sure to sign up for the District Dinner, which is almost here (May 6).

Have a great Scouting month!

and I promise you will have a great time reflecting on the experiences of the past twelve months. And bring a friend, maybe someone who is not involved with Scouting. Let them see what it's all about. Unit leaders, bring the heads of your chartered organizations. Commissioners, bring a friend who might want to become a commissioner. And I hope everyone will bring their spouses. Our recognition dinner is a time to pause and give thanks to all who support this great program. See you there!

Thank you to all units and unit leaders who helped with the Scouting for Food Campaign and to Ruby Michelle Taylor-Gay for her leadership in this important service project. I am told a record amount of food was collected. I know those who receive the donation deeply appreciate it. I do, too.

Thank you for all you are doing for Scouting.

The District "Thumbs Up" Award

"Thumbs Up" to our outgoing District Chair, Frank Kebelman. He came into our district wanting to make some improvements. Top priority on his list was getting information out to all our members. His informative emails, his getting a team together to update the district website regularly and input into our district newsletter are all signs that he has succeeded in what he wanted to accomplish. Kudos, Frank!

Update FROM NATIONAL BSA: BSA Historic Merit Badge Program

Signaling

Pathfinding

Tracking

Carpentry

You may have heard rumors that the Historic Merit Badge Program has been canceled. Not true.

What is true is that the BSA is putting finishing touches on the program now, and the end result will be well worth the wait.

The Youth Development team plans to release the program soon, and once that happens, it will consist of much more than just adding Signaling, Tracking, Pathfinding, and Carpentry to 2010's list of available merit badges.

The team wants today's Scouts to get a sense of what Scouts in the 1910s experienced. They want Scouts to earn the merit badges in ways similar to those used by Scouts back then. The world has changed drastically in 100 years, but the fundamental lessons of these merit badges have not.

In the spirit of being green and making the program accessible, you won't be able to get printed materials for the merit badges. Instead, have your Scouts go to scouting.org.

They'll have access to scans of the original pamphlets for each of the four historic merit badges. However, because the language and techniques used in those badges comes from the early 20th century, the BSA has been hard at work crafting supplements that will help put the requirements in a modern context.

The site also offers program implementation guide, a camporee guide, a Boy Scout resident camp guide, a training session guide, press releases, and other materials that councils, districts, and units can use to promote the program.

For more information on the historic merit badges go to:

National BSA is looking for you to “Join our Scouting Research Panels”

Would you like to become part of our Scouting research panel? By signing up, you agree to receive surveys via e-mail on a variety of topics related to your Scouting experience, the Scouting program, or other areas of interest to Scouting. We will not send you more than four surveys a year. And every time you take a survey, you will have a chance to win an iTunes gift card or other prize.

Your information will only be used for research purposes by the national office of the Boy Scouts of America. Your identity in all surveys is kept confidential and results of the surveys are only reported as a group; no individual responses will be identified. Have your membership card ready and go to:

Get in the Game! With Geocaching!

It's a great way to share Scouting skills—and outdoor adventure—with today's tech savvy youth.” Boy Scouts has developed 5 geocaching events. For more information go to:

Board of Review Update

Starting with the April Eagle Boards of Review, we will be limiting guests of an Eagle Candidate to his Unit Leader and his parents and/or guardians. This will give the Eagle Candidate the opportunity to meet and socialize with the other Eagle Candidates being reviewed the same evening. It will also give the unit leader and the Eagle Candidate some time to ready themselves before going in for the Eagle Board of Review. Thanks for your cooperation!

Eagle Counselors

An Eagle Counselor plays a big role in the Eagle Process. This is the person the scout meets for a final approval BEFORE he starts any work on his project. It is recommended that an Eagle Candidate call the Eagle Counselor of their choice as soon as they are ready to start the Eagle process.

An Eagle Candidate may use any Eagle Counselor listed on the San Diego-Imperial Council Website. Listed below are the counselors that are in our district.

The Driving Force Award is the Santa Margarita District award for those members of the district's units who have gone out of their way to serve the youth in the unit. The number of adults from each unit the district likes to recognize for their contributions to their unit depends on the number of registered youth in the unit. The table below shows the maximum number of adults a unit can nominate. Presentations will be at our annual District Dinner Meeting. You are in the best position to help the district leadership publicly honor your unit's Driving Forces. Please coordinate the nominations with your unit and submit a single copy of this form to nominate members of your unit and return it to Jack Cater, the District Advancement and Recognition Chairman, or electronically mail the information to him at:
